Thursday Prosecuting Attorney B. F. Mulkey moved that the one-time friend of Mike Spanon be released upon his own recognizance. This was done because of the extremely delicate condition of his wife, and that the accused might be able to contribute to her support. The indictment, however, still bangs over Commings pending good behavior.

F. W. Burke, alleged to have committed a statutory offense upon a 17year-old brotherless girl in the south end of the county, was allowed to plead guilty to a charge of simple assault, and will be sentenced later.
